SaffronWinds
fair trade crafts from exotic lands

Our range of exquisite fair trade goods are sourced from South East Asia. Particularly in Cambodia, we source predominantly silk handicrafts from non-profit handicraft organisations that support disadvantaged groups, such as, land mine victims, orphaned children, disabled persons, or simply to assist in building new housing for poor villagers. We also buy from local artisans in Chiang Mai, Thailand, who make beautiful, unique jewellery and mango wood candle holders.

With your support, we are all contributing to help these wonderful people build a future for themselves by providing them with an income and giving them hope for the future.
